TRADOC Supplement 1 to AR 20-1

NOTE: Army Regulation 20-1, Glossary, Section II, Terms, “Directing authority” definition states: A directing authority may not delegate his or her directing authority but may delegate in writing report-approval authority to a deputy commander or director.

Supplement Army Regulation 20-1, as follows-

After paragraph 7-2d(1), add subparagraphs (a) and (b) as follows:

(a) The Commanding General, U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC), unless indicated otherwise in specified reports, hereby delegates authority to the TRADOC Deputy Commanding General/Chief of Staff, for the approval or disapproval authority for Inspector General reports. This authority may not be further delegated.

(b) The commander may cancel or withdraw delegated authority at any time (to include upon review after a change of command).
