Supplement Army Regulation 381-10, 3 May 2007, as follows-

After paragraph 1-1k add:

1. AR 381-10 applies to all DA intelligence components. AR 381-10 also applies to all personnel assigned to any military intelligence unit and to all levels of command, brigade size or larger, which have an established G-2/S-2 office. This includes staff sections that support unified or specified commands, and intelligence staff offices supporting commanders/directors at all echelons, as well as, their subordinate intelligence units and offices. The following organizations have been determined as not performing such a mission and are hereby exempt from this requirement are: U.S. Army Recruiting Command, U.S. Army Cadet Command, U.S. Army Soldier Support Institute, U.S. Army Combined Army Support Command, U.S. Army Center for Military History, U.S. Army Center for Initial Military Training, U.S. Army Health Readiness Center of Excellence, U.S. Army Non-Commissioned Officer Leadership Center, U.S. Army Sergeants Major Academy, U.S. Army Cyber Center of Excellence, and U.S. Army Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center.

After paragraph 1-4p(6) add:

(7) Appoint a unit intelligence oversight officer (IOO), in writing via appointment memorandum. Unit IOOs must be an intelligence professional (commissioned officer, warrant officer, staff sergeant or above, or civilian employee) and possess intelligence experience commensurate with their oversight responsibilities. Unit IOOs must be actively involved in the intelligence mission, have a thorough understanding of unit intelligence operations, have access to all unit intelligence and intelligence-related activities (including those protected by special access programs, alternative compensatory control measures, and other security compartments), and have direct access to the unit commander to report on intelligence oversight compliance.

(8) Unit IOOs will complete annually, either the U.S. Intelligence and Security Command Intelligence Oversight Course or Defense Intelligence Agency Intelligence Oversight Officer/Supervisor Course.

After paragraph 15-5 add: All employee misconduct issues that are not intelligence matters and are governed by other Army regulations are reported via serious incident report procedures in accordance with TRADOC Regulation 1-8.

TRADOC Suppl 1 to AR 381-10

After paragraph 16-2i add:

j. TRADOC-specific reporting requirements. Commanders, G-2/S-2s, and/or security managers will forward all reports identified in/subject to chapter 16 through unit IOOs within the chain of command.

In the glossary add:

IOO	intelligence oversight officer
S-2	security
